Club Building

With the help of dedicated Kiwanians and students, Pennsylvania is currently in the process of building four Circle K Clubs! If you have any Key Clubbers who are graduating and are interested in starting a Circle K Club, please feel free to share my contact information.

Community College of Allegheny County – Allegheny

Thanks to the interest of a few Sheraden Kiwanians, they are working on building a club at their local community college. They already of the support of the school and some students have signed up. They just need to recruit a few more to charter.

University of Pennsylvania

UPenn became inactive last year but was saved by a few freshmen who were Key Club alumni. The club is still recognized on campus with access to funding. They just need some help recruiting new members and they will be back in action. The University City Kiwanis Club is helping with rechartering efforts.

Penn State University - Behrend

PennState
Behrend

Penn State – Behrend, in Erie, was another club that was on the inactive list. Their former sponsoring Kiwanis Club was interested in reviving the club after the pandemic. We hope that they will charter soon.

Temple University

Temple is another club that is being started by Key Club Alumni. The club has been active by holding meetings and service projects. They have a full board of officers. They just need some help with recruitment to get up to charter strength.
